A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear All,

First, thank you very, very much to all who organized a great lunch and party for Fr. Mike Boehling last weekend at St. Patrick. It went wonderful and was a last-minute decision to have the party. People pulled together and worked hard. Thank you very much.

Secondly, we are going to have a dinner at St. Peter on Thursday, June 30 at 6:30 pm for Fr. Danny as he celebrates the big 1-year anniversary to ordination. Please join us.

Thirdly, this past Friday we had a wonderful Mass and celebration for Fr. Frank's 30th anniversary as a priest. For 30 years he has labored in the vineyard, made himself available to be used by God, served at the altar, forgiven sins through the Church's absolution, prepared people to meet God at the end of their lives, supported families who have lost love ones, helped couples to make the lifelong commitment of marriage, washed away the original sin of many through baptism, as well as many, many other occasions of being used by God as a vessel of grace.

I am thankful to God for Fr. Frank and his vocation, for Fr. Danny and his vocation and for Fr. Mike and his vocation. These men have laid down their lives in service to God and others.

When I think about how many lives a priest touches in a single day, how many moments when a priest is present for some very significant event in the life of a person, and how many moments I cannot even remember from the last three years of priesthood because there are so many, I can only imagine what it will be like after 10, 20, 30 or 50 years.

Priesthood is an amazing life. God uses priests in supernatural ways.

The other thing I am noticing about being a priest, now that I am becoming such a veteran (at 3 years), is that priesthood gets better every year. I would confess that my hardest year as a priest was probably the first year. But it has become more fulfilling, enjoyable and exciting with each passing day...and that is not an exaggeration. This past year I have spent at these parishes in Richmond has been amazing. What it will be like in 30 years, I can only imagine.

I wonder if marriage is like that. I think that it is supposed to be like that. All good things only get better with age.

Let me say one final thing as a side: I am sure you are also aware concerning your priests that although Jesus is perfect and never makes a mistake, we his priests are not. We make many mistakes and have many limitations. We his priests are very human. We speak too humanly sometimes and act too humanly sometimes in spite of being called to a lofty vocation. We offer what we have, as imperfectly as we are, hoping that God might use it for something to His glory. Nevertheless, we are here for you and for whatever need you may have. Do not hesitate to approach us with your thoughts, needs or concerns. And always please support us with your prayers. We promise to do the same for you and all your loved ones. Fr. Rossi

Fr. Danny is celebrating his 1st anniversary – There will be a reception on Thursday, June 30, 6:30 pm, at St. Peter. All are invited to celebrate with Fr. Danny. RSVP is requested by June 23. Please call the office, 804-643-4315 or email: stpeterchurch2@aol.com.
